“Walking on Earth”

An exploration of mind, body and spirit.

This exhibition interweaves themes of Archetypes,
Dreams and Myths.

Buchanan Bistro Banchory – August - September 2024

“Dreams are the guiding words of the Soul”

Carl Jung

“The doors to the world of the wild are few and precious. If you have a deep scar, that is a door, if you have an old, old story, that is a door. If you love the sky and the water as much as you almost cannot bear it, that is a door...”

Clarissa Pinkola Estes

Tuck-Chee Phung grew up in Malaysia and has lived in Scotland for the past 45 years.

He has held solo exhibitions in Edinburgh, London and Aberdeen.

For many years his professional work was in social work and social work training before embarking upon the fields of Person-centred counselling, supervision and coaching. More recently he has been involved with both local and international groups in community development initiatives.

He has made art for many years, he majored in Fine Arts for his undergraduate degree, and has a Masters and Ph.D. in History of Art.
